

ATTENTION

ATTENTION

WHO: Applicants for the Maxie Collier Scholars Program

WHAT: Students interested in mental health and have declared majors in natural sciences, nursing, psychology, or social work

WHEN: January 11, 2012 Applications available in HHSB 522 OR Online: www.coppin.edu/maxiecollier/application.asp

March 15, 2012 Deadline for completed applications
April 4, 2012 Date of Interviews for Applicants

WHERE: Coppin State University's Health and Human Services Building

WHY: The Maxie Collier Scholars Program aims to educate and recruit more African Americans into the field of mental health and to address the shortage of trained clinicians available to serve children, adolescents, and their families.

BENEFITS:

$1,000.00 per semester stipend
Tutoring, Mentoring, Advisement
Enrichment Activities

CONTACT: Ms. Na'imah Ferguson, Interim Coordinator
Maxie Collier Scholars Program
Health and Human Services Building, Room 523, (410) 951-3486
nferguson@coppin.edu

Additional Points of Contact for Majors:

Natural Sciences	Dr. Gilbert Ogonji	Percy Julian Building, Room 122
Nursing	Ms. Crystal Black	HHSB 426J
Psychology	Ms. Julie Manley	HHSB 339
Social Work	Ms. Edna Swann	HHSB 527A