Attention Attention

WHO: Applicants for the Maxie Collier Scholars Program

WHAT: Students who can spend a minimum of two years in the Program and have declared majors in natural sciences, nursing, psychology, or social work

WHEN:

December 10, 2009	Applications available in HHSB 522 or online: www.coppin.edu/maxiecollier/application.asp
March 23, 2010	Deadline for completed applications
April 14, 2010	Interviews for Applicants
April 27, 2010	Announcement of 2010 Maxie Collier Scholars

WHERE: Coppin State University

WHY: The Maxie Collier Scholars Program aims to educate and recruit more African Americans into the field of mental health and to address the shortage of trained clinicians available to serve children, adolescents, and their families.

BENEFITS:
$1000 per semester stipend
Tutoring, Mentoring, Advisement
Enrichment Activities

CONTACT: Ms. Julie Manley, Coordinator
Maxie Collier Scholars Program
Health and Human Services Building, Room 540
410.951.3486

Points of Contact:

Natural Sciences	Dr. Gilbert Ogonji	Percy Julian Building Room 122
Nursing	Ms. Crystal Black	HHSB 426 J
Psychology	Dr. Rolande Murray	HHSB 353 A
Social Work	Dr. Vonda Smith Hill	HHSB 524