

ARE YOU

1. A State of Maryland Citizen?
2. Officially enrolled as a Coppin State University Freshman or Sophomore student with a 3.0 Grade Point Average?
3. Enrolled or plan to enroll in the GER Course Health 105.001, “Emerging Issues in Mental Health and Well-Being”?
4. A declared major in Natural Sciences, Nursing, Psychology, or Social Work?
5. Interested in the mental health needs of the African-American population in the United States?
6. Interested in a career in mental health in the State of Maryland Mental Health System?
7. Willing to make a commitment to fulfill the undergraduate and graduate level requirements of an individualized professional training curriculum plan with a mental health focus?

If your answer is YES, then call (410) 951-3486 for an appointment to discuss becoming a MAXIE COLLIER SCHOLAR.

REQUIREMENTS:

- All of the above aforementioned
- Three (3) letters of recommendation
- Personal interview
- 3.0 GPA preferred

BENEFITS:

- $1000 per semester stipend
- Tutoring - Mentoring - Advisement
- Enrichment Activities
- Articulation between undergraduate and graduate school programming

DATES:

- Applications available in HHSB 522
- Applications due
- Interviews
- Announcement of New Scholars

CONTACT:

Mrs. Julie Manley, Coordinator
Maxie Collier Scholars Program
Health and Human Services Building, Room 540
(410) 951-3486