Lastly, thank you for continuing your commitment to keeping our campus safe during these From the desk of through genetic testing to have the CDH1 gene, a primary gene for hereditary diffuse Cancer Awareness event.

On November 19, in

Month Observed that sounds like an effective and unique class. Thanks to Dr. Rhoden-Trader and Sykesville and Active Shooter Training with Morgan State University Police.

participated in shooting simulations at the Maryland Police Training Academy in Museum, The Museum of African American History and Culture and classes and nationally, we will, again, reduce our on-campus capacity, following the COVID-19 campus outbreaks, and our collective efforts have allowed us to maintain instruction. We have made it through most of our fall semester with no significant continued throughout the summer. As we approached the start of the fall semester, When the pandemic began in March, on-campus staffing was reduced to a minimum Reduced On-campus Staffing

In addition to addressing the COVID-19 challenges, The Cultivating Cultural learning as a result of COVID-19, this grant will help to ensure the primary focus of As teachers grapple with new technologies to ensure continuation of teaching and As we look forward to the

As a gesture of my appreciation for all that you have done for the university, I am our faculty and cautious and socially And in the midst of being coronavirus on our campus. outstanding commitment to

Coppin State University, I have bright future that is ahead for

As we look forward to the students with law enforcers and community members.

Coppin State, Morgan State and Howard University faculty and that is designed to grow the next generation of renewable

Enhancing the Understanding of High School and Undergraduate

November 23, 2020

Anthony L. Jenkins, Ph.D.

president@coppin.edu

Coppin State University

View this email

Manage

This email was sent to Coppin State University 2500 West North Avenue

Happy Thanksgiving

regarding the 2020 Calvert Foundation Entrepreneurship Challenge. Congratulations to the recipients from Morgan State University and Baltimore City Community College.

You can read the full article that discusses the efforts and from the implementation of knowledge and technology in ourCI community.

New Educational Grant Received

With the help of Community College of Baltimore County (CCBC), Coppin State university was awarded a new grant from the Maryland State Department of Education Relief (GEER) grant to provide professional development to support

As teachers grabble with new technologies to ensure continuation of teaching and As we look forward to the

Innovative Policing

Inside Out Class Winds

Innovative Policing

Good work to all faculty and staff involved!

Students from Coppin State University, Coppin Academy, Bluford Drew Jemison 2020).

In addition to addressing the COVID-19 challenges, The Cultivating Cultural Redesign Committee to work the Redesign Committee to work

Redesign Committee to work

Officer, Dr. Ahmed El-Haggan, tasked my Chief Information

Coppin State University, I have
bright future that is ahead for

As we look forward to the