OBTAINING A MARYLAND DRIVERS LICENSE

TO GET A MARYLAND DRIVER’S LICENSE, you must be at least 16 years old. You DO NOT have to have a Social Security Number, but you must present the following documents:

1. Passport
2. Form I-94 card (should be in your passport)
3. Current Form 1-20 (and any old I-20’s you may have)
4. Driver’s License from your home country or your international license, if you have one
5. Proof of Maryland address such as mail that shows your name and address, a telephone bill, electric bill, credit card bill, or a copy of your lease.
6. Another form of identification with your signature on it such as a picture ID, canceled check, or a credit card.
7. Fees

At the MVA, you will have to take a written test and a road test using your own car. The written test consists of 20 multiple-choice questions and is available in many languages. You are also required to take a vision test.
